

Frameworks to watch in your sector

Jan - Jun 2024

Framework agreements are being used more and more to procure goods & services. The trouble is actually finding the right frameworks to begin with. Teams often waste hours searching for frameworks, and risk missing ones which cater to your specific needs.

In this guide, we've harnessed Tussell's framework analytics to uncover which frameworks were used to award high-value work between January and June 2024, helping you narrow down which frameworks to utilise when you next go to market.

*These frameworks were identified using Tussell's market intelligence platform. Frameworks are ranked based on the value of identified call-off contracts matched to said framework. Only contracts awarded between 1st January 2024 to 30th June 2024 are included. Sectors are defined by contract CPV codes and/or contract keyword searches. Due to the lag in contract award publication, the value and volume of call-off contracts may be understated in some cases. ## What does this all mean?

The public sector market is in a transitional period.

Recent analysis from Tussell and the Financial Times shows that framework usage has climbed 250% between 2019 and 2023.

And, with the 2023 Procurement Act set to go live in Q4 2024, new open frameworks and dynamic markets are expected to further alter the public procurement landscape.

For contracting authorities, these changes present a fresh chance to redouble efforts on SME procurement, efficiency, cost-saving, and social value.

Dozens of public sector buyers are already using Tussell to make smarter procurement decisions.
